LIVIO RADIO FEATURING PANDORA

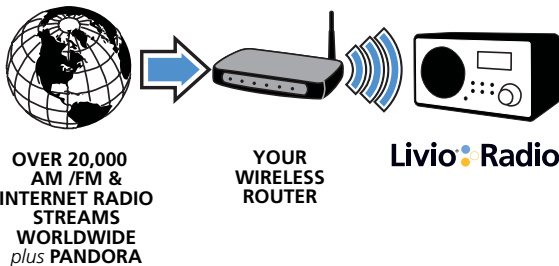

BLACK

PANDORA®
internet radio

Product Description

Pandora is a free, personalized Internet radio service, available anytime and anywhere on the PC, in the home and on mobile devices. Pandora is based on the Music Genome Project™, which began in 2000 and is the most thorough analysis of popular music ever undertaken. By simply entering a favorite song or artist, a listener is instantly launched into a personalized listening experience. Today, Pandora has a growing user base of more than 60 million registered listeners.

The Livio Radio featuring Pandora is an Internet radio solution for home use. It is the first and only dedicated device to offer Pandora's signature "thumbs-up, thumbs-down" controls on both the front panel and a remote with unlimited access to the service without a computer or monthly fee. Users play the part of DJ with customizable music across any genre.

In addition to Pandora customized radio stations, users have access to an additional 20,000 Internet radio streams from around the world without subscriptions or monthly fees!
