

Livio Radio

More Music, Less Work.

Change the Way You Listen to Radio in the Car with the Kit

Wirelessly connect your iPhone® to any FM car stereo and add Internet radio through the Livio Car Internet Radio Application (included) or any audio application (including Pandora®, Grooveshark™, NPR® and your iPod®). The Livio Bluetooth Internet Radio Car Kit works in any car with a 12-volt charging outlet and an FM stereo.

The Livio Car Internet Radio App (available for free in the iTunes® app store) offers access to more than 45,000 stations from around the world and is the first mobile Internet radio solution optimized for use in the vehicle.

Handsfree Calling with Noise-Canceling Mic

Safely answer and make phone calls while driving. Quickly redial the last call made.

Wireless Internet Radio Streaming

Wireless audio solution for every vehicle. Shows artist and title on RDS (Radio Data System) compatible factory radios.

USB Charger

Charge your smartphone.

Free Car Internet Radio App

Bring over 45,000 AM, FM, and Internet-only stations to your car's FM stereo without monthly fees.

Made for iPod iPhone

How It Works

1. Plug the Kit into your car's 12V adapter. Tune your car's FM radio to the same frequency shown on the Kit. The Kit automatically finds available FM frequencies at the touch of a button.
2. Pair your phone to the Kit through bluetooth.
3. Download our Livio Application for free from iTunes. Stream your music and enjoy handsfree calls through your car stereo. Also listen to any other audio application on your phone including iPod.
